Below is a list of additional resources about the HAVING IT ALL documentary film, the expert guests on the discussion panel, 1 Million for Work Flexibility, and FlexJobs.

HAVING IT ALL is a documentary about three professional women who set out to live their dreams of balancing career, marriage, and children. The film follows each of their lives for two trying years, through unanticipated trade-offs, painful sacrifices, and routinely overlooked yet ubiquitously endured experiences of today's working parents. The documentary examines how each woman finds herself with a changed life and a changed idea of what HAVING IT ALL really means.
